

Darwin Twine Ball Museum

Two letters from Microsoft

Microsoft Corporation

Microsoft

Thea Underhill

Darwin,
April 7, 1999

Dear Thea,

I received your letter dated mid-March. I forwarded your request for a copy of the product to my manager, who said I could send you one! I hope you enjoy the product – it has great content and excellent routing abilities. Play with it a bit and you should be able to find the World's Largest Ball of Twine Made by One Man fairly quickly. Thanks again for sending in your updated information.

Sincerely,

Kristin Elko

Darwin Twine Ball Museum Letter from Microsoft

Microsoft Corporation
One Microsoft Way
Redmond, WA 98072-4000

Tel: (800) 485-4000
Fax: (800) 542-7100
<http://www.microsoft.com>

Microsoft

Thea Underhill
World's Largest Ball of Twine
27901 Grand St
Darwin, MN 55328

February 12, 1999

Dear Thea,

Thank you for submitting the image(s) of World's Largest Ball of Twine for the Microsoft Expedia Streets & Trips CD-ROM travel guide. We received hundreds of wonderful images from so many establishments, yours included. Unfortunately, due to an overwhelming response to our request, we were not able to incorporate all of the images we received and are returning your image(s) to you at this time.

We truly appreciate the time you took to update your information and gather images. Be assured that, although we are unable to include your image, the information about your establishment will remain in Streets & Trips. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us at (800) 485-4000.

Sincerely,

Kristin Elko
Fact-Check Coordinator/Content Editor

Encl.

Expedia Streets & Trips is our newest release that combines Microsoft's leading street-mapping technology and award-winning travel guide into one comprehensive travel-planning software package. Streets & Trips also has updated destination information to help travelers find accommodations from campgrounds to five-star hotels; nationally acclaimed restaurants; sight-seeing suggestions; online reservations; and more. To find a retailer near you that carries Streets & Trips, call (800) 426-9400, or simply place an order by dialing (800) 485-2058. For more information, visit the Streets & Trips Web site at www.microsoft.com/expedia.

Microsoft Corporation is an equal opportunity employer.